

BANK HOLIDAY PURSUIT RACE - HONEY POT

The Honey Pot Trophy was designed and commissioned by Jesper Garvin. The trophy is a beautiful silver bear with a honey-pot. Jesper was a honey merchant who imported honey from all over the world, blended and then marketed it to some big companies such as Kellogg's. Jesper sailed a Yeoman for many years and the trophy originally was for one of the races at the Yeoman National Championships. On Jesper's death the Honey Pot trophy was given to the club, by his son Tim Garvin (who currently sails a D1 and RS400) and is now awarded as a prize for the second May Bank Holiday Pursuit Race.
